++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry with sunny spells, but breezy.

Today:
Dry with bright or sunny spells for most, although it is likely to be rather cloudy across western parts during the morning. Brisk winds, particularly along the north Norfolk coast, will gradually ease later in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with largely clear skies and light winds overnight, which may allow some isolated patches of mist and fog to form in rural areas towards dawn. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Friday:
A dry day, with early morning mist and fog patches clearing to sunny spells. Breezy during the middle of the day. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
The weekend will be largely dry with warm sunny spells, although a few heavy showers are likely to develop Sunday. Heavy rain and blustery winds clearing to scattered showers Monday.
